

Use e-Rate to enable school and community infrastructure (wiring, wifi, internet connections) to support 1:1 computing in schools and libraries. This means dramatically increasing bandwidth.

We should also treat all communications companies equally, telecom companies and cable companies should all pay into E-Rate.